

Alone In the Midst of the Crowd

Ward Ricker

Ward Ricker

$\text{♩} = 80$
Dm

C

Dm

C

Dm

C

Fac - es kind, oh so close, yet so far a-way. No one un - der-stands the si-lent
Friends en-gage. Lov - ers walk, join-ing hand in hand. In the crowd you stand a-lone, no
Fa - thers with daugh - ters stand. Moth - ers child - ren hold. Loves o dem - on - strat - ed, it wil

4 Dm C Am Gm Dm Gm Dm

words you can - not say. Friend - ly smiles beam - ing warmth that you can - not feel.
one to un - der - stand. Peo - ple talk. Child - ren play. With laugh - ter they squeal.
on - ly leave you cold. Reach - ing out if you could, but it's all in vain.

7 Gm C Gm C Dm C

No one can you find to whom your pain you can re - veal. Have you e - ver been a -
Watch - ing it all just pass by, this world that's so sur - real.
See - ing joy and watch - ing love, it on - ly brings you pain.

10 Dm C Dm Dm C Dm C Dm

- lone in the midst of the crowd? Have you e - ver been a - lone in the midst of the crowd?