

Reason to Give Thanks

Ward Ricker

Ward Ricker

♩ = 96    D    G    A    D    G    A

You're thank-ful for the food you eat. You do ap-pre-ci-ate the You're thank-ful that you have a home, a roof o-ver your head. You You're thank-ful that you have a fa-mi-ly, dear peo-ple who do care. You Yes, my friend we should re-call to al-ways thank-ful be, but

5    G    A    G    A    D    G

ef-fort to pro-vide it, and your grat-ti-tude you state, but what of those who give your thanks for dry-ness, warmth, a kit-chen and a bed. But she who has no share with them your love each day. Your thanks you do de-clare. But he who has no as we re-call our good for-tune, let us not fail to see that some just do not have not what to meet their need? Have you reached out with your heart the place to sleep and be se-cure, but sleeps u-pon the ground, cold and hard, one with whom to talk a-bout his pains and stru-ggles ev-ery day, to have e-nough to get them through. Let's help them out a lit-tle bit so

10    A    D    G    A    G    A

Reason to Give Thanks --Page 2

15 G A D A D

hun-gry mouths to feed. For what we ha-ve we should be thank-ful all the days that we have you thought of her? out? too.
him have you reached out?
they can give thanks, too.

20 A G A G A live, but how much bright-ter the world would be if to oth-ers we would give a rea - son to give thanks, a rea - son to give thanks.

25 D G A G A D